CAMPAIGN SYMBOL

The Sinarapan (Pandaka Pygmaea) — the smallest freshwater fish in the Philippines featured in ten (10) centavo coins until the 1994 series — is the rallying symbol of the campaign. Before our "Creator", we are all equally small fish as implied by Jesus Christ — the Lord and Savior of Christians, the Greatest Prophet of Muslims and one of the Best Philosophers of Agnostics — when He called on the Apostles to join Him "to be fishers of men".

CAMPAIGN SLOGAN

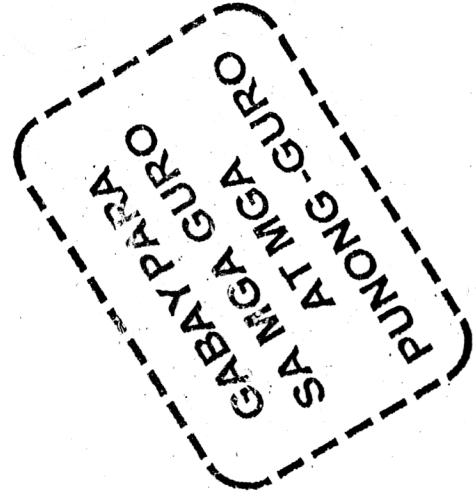

The campaign slogan is: DIYES FOR PEACE – Bayanihan para sa Kapayapaan.

The rallying call is the number 10 (DIYES) to underscore the following:

1. The phrase – DIYES FOR PEACE – rhymes and appeals to easy memory recall!
2. Respondents are expected to answer YES to all questions posed — 'Di-YES FOR PEACE'.
3. The campaign will involve Filipinos 10 years old and above.
4. 10 years is legally defined as the age of discernment. People are normally expected to have a sound sense of what is wrong and right at this age.
5. 10 is the age when a person who continuously attended school is expected to have learned how to read, write and comprehend.
6. The responses to the 10 questions of the campaign will be used to define the basis of national unity and establish the foundations of an era of a just, comprehensive and lasting peace.
7. The number 10 is universally accepted as a number of perfection.
8. There are 10 Commandments recognized by all religions in the Philippines.
9. The campaign gained substantial momentum in 1996 — the first year after the 10th since the EDSA phenomenon.
10. The campaign was launched in 1996 — the closing year of the 10th decade of the Philippine Revolution.

DIYES FOR PEACE

Bayanihan para sa Kapayapaan

Kailangan po bang tumulong ang lahat ng mga Filipino para makamit ang ganap na kapayapaan?

Kapayapaan na iniibaanap pa rin ng Sambayananang Filipino ng mapagkakasunduang batayan?

Kapayapaan na gusto nating makamit para sa atin at sa susunod pang mga hemerasyon?
